Sitting in front of
Capitol Terrace

It is with sadness that we bring you news of the passing of Patricia Edwards. Pat served as a Sacramento Resident Advisory Board (RAB) Vice President from June 2011 until her passing on June 10, 2018. In that capacity she contributed to the leadership, integrity and direction to the RAB.

Max was her constant chaperone and they got along with everyone.

Born January 30, 1954, Pat grew up in San Francisco's Potrero Hill neighborhood. Pat graduated from Job Corps in Oregon going on to attend Oregon State where, she studied Nursing. Pat returned to the Bay Area where she married Mr. Edwards. Pat took a love for the motor cycle association. She at some point became President of Pure Honey's 5.0 Sacramento chapter. After moving to

WANT TO PAY YOUR RENT ONLINE?

After many years of bugging SHRA to let us pay our rent online, it has happened!

SHRA has announced a web-based information center for the residents of public housing and SHRA managed properties. Residents will be able to pay their rent on line by accessing a web-based portal thru Yardi RENT Café. Each resident will personally set up and customize their account thru the Rent Café resident portal.

SHRA is also featuring Walk in Payment System "WIPS" for Conventional Housing residents. This will allow residents to pay their monthly rent with a WISP payment card from over 20,000 participating retail locations including Walmart. The WISP cards can be requested and picked up at your site office.

This web site will allow you to:

- View your payment and billing transactions
- Make secure online rent payments
- Confirm and update your information such as phone, email and car information

Drone

There is a new drone in the sky and it's being flown by the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency. It flies over two housing communities, Alder Grove and Marina Vista. Those complexes have seen serious crimes, including a fatal shooting in January and a triple homicide in 2016.

"We initiated the drone program in order to enhance the safety and security of our residents," said LaTanna Jones, SHRA's assistant director.

He says the five-foot-long aircraft operates between 6 pm and 6 am and has already spotted illegal dumping and trespassing. Pilots have established a protocol to protect privacy.

"The drones are programmed so that they do not catch any footage until they get to about 200 feet in the air," Jones said.

The drone is part of a 90-day pilot project that costs about $81,000.

A bill in 2015 would have restricted drone usage 350 feet above homes without permission. It was vetoed by Gov. Jerry Brown, who said "Drone technology certainly raises novel issues that merit careful examination. This bill, however, while well-intentioned, could expose the occasional hobbyist and the FAA-approved commercial user alike to burdensome litigation and new causes of action. Before we go down that path, let's look at this more carefully."

Sacramento in July 2007 she became very instrumental in her senior living building (Capitol Terrace) and built a lot of great relationships with the residents. She was elected as chairman of the resident committee. In that scope she began to volunteer with the RAB. She was elected to the RAB executive committee as Vice Chairman. She served in that capacity from June 2011 to June 2018

Pat loved helping others, always providing a listening ear or a helping hand. Pat didn't have any biological children but she never hesitated to care for her nieces and nephews like her own. Pat had a heart of gold, stepping up and helping where and whenever she was needed.

Pat will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family, many friends and neighbors.

She is survived by two brothers, two sisters, six nieces, seven nephews, and her baby, Max (Her dog), and a Host of great nieces & nephews, also close friends that were considered family.

Although Pat's funeral was on June 21st, at Morgan and Jones on Broadway, we will have a time of 'Remembrance' for her at our July quarterly meeting. Those who knew her will have an opportunity to say a few words.

Fire Safety training

Mike Chism has a 'Fire and Life Safety' training on the fourth Friday of each month. In addition to providing emergency phone numbers and finding out the many ways SHRA takes action to keep you safe, he teaches things you can do to insure your safety in an emergency.

You also get to put out a real fire with a fire extinguisher in the hands on portion of the class.

Trainings are by community on the 4th Friday of most months.

Friday, June 29 12:00pm - 2:00pm Mandy/Meadowgate

Friday, July 27 12:00pm - 2:00pm
Oak Park 2845 37th Avenue

Friday, August 24 12:00pm - 2:00pm
